RES
Resource Energy Solutions

Benefit from the power of Resource Energy Solutions software, whether you are working in the Oil & Gas or Mining industry, by signing-up for our 'Cloud Computing' option.

RES CLOUD
Resource Energy Solutions offers Software as a Service through a full-scale online cloud data center base and integrated reporting system with AFE Manager, Wellman, and Midstream Manager.
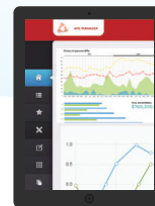

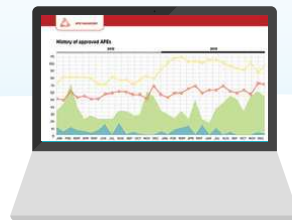

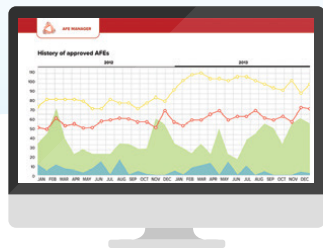

RES cloud

CONNECT ANYWHERE
Work and get updates while at your office, home or the field using any modern device.

RES cloud

RES CLOUD SERVER
Defence Information System Agency (DISA) data security compliant.

A comprehensive suite of resource life cycle, upstream, midstream, financial planning, and controls software.

BENEFITS
- Access to enterprise-class project and cost management tracking software via the Internet.
- No need to buy or lease a server.
- No need to buy, install or maintain software.
- Access your data securely from anywhere via the Internet.
- All IT related duties are managed for you.

More Information: www.resourceenergysolutions.com

FEATURES
- Compliant with Federal Information Processing Standard (FIPS) for access and security of data Redundant Internet access ensuring reliable connectivity.
- All server and software licensing and hardware included.
- All server and user maintenance including patches, upgrades, support, and the creation and management of client user accounts.

RES software products constitute comprehensive software and cover a wide range of cost tracking, capital budgeting, detailed data gathering and project management functions.

Please see our product specific information for AFE, Wellman, and Midstream Manager.